

Category	Points	Weight (%)	Requirements for Full Marks	Marks (/2 Each)	Section Total	Weighted	Notes
The Five Transformations	20	40.0%	• 5 distinct transformations of the same source image, each in its own section.		0	0.0
			• Each transformation uses at least 3 CSS properties from the provided list (or equivalent found online).
			• Each transformation includes a label/caption identifying: (1) the Glitch Studies Manifesto concept, (2) the CSS technique, (3) how the two connect.
			• Each transformation is clearly tied to a different idea from the Glitch Studies Manifesto reading.
			• The image used is original (taken or made by the student).
CSS Requirements	12	35.0%	• 5 custom classes defined in style.css, each with a comment describing its purpose.		0	0.0
			• Stylesheet is external (style.css), properly linked from index.html.
			• Project structure is correct: index.html, style.css, /images/imageName.(png jpg jpeg) at root.
			• Page is scrollable and all five transformations are accessible via vertical and/or horizontal scrolling
			• No inline styles used for transformation logic (CSS lives in style.css).
Git Workflow & Repo	16	15.0%	• Repo named exactly a2-one-image-x5		0	0.0
			• At least 10 experiment branches, all pushed to GitHub.
			• At least 5 merge commits.
			• Minimum 30 commits with meaningful messages (explains what AND why; 'update' or 'fix' alone = mark deduction).
			• 5 commits identified as significant versions.
			• At least 3 GitHub Issues in the repo; each referenced in a commit message using #<number> notation.
			• Live page published via GitHub Pages.
Index Page & Documentation	8	10.0%	• username.github.io index page links to: live A2 page, A2 GitHub repo.		0	0.0
			• 5 significant version commits also linked on username.github.io page, each with 1–2 sentence annotation.
			• Every significant block of HTML and CSS has a comment explaining what it does and why.
			• Commented-out code is present showing discarded experiments.
			• username.github.io URL submitted to Brightspace A2 assignment page.
Bonus (+5%)	5	5.0%	• Media query added to style.css for responsive design (smartphone/tablet scaling).		0	0.0
			• 3 element IDs defined in style.css.
				Subtotal		0.0
			Days Late?	0		0.0
			Total (no bonus)			0.0
			Total (with bonus)			0.0	